THE CANADIAN DIVERSITY INITIATIVE

Conduct and Inclusion Training for Youth Hockey

OVERVIEW

This self-paced course provides youth hockey players with practical guidance to help them identify appropriate and inappropriate conduct, be respectful and inclusive on and off the ice, and understand their responsibility to report concerns. The course uses hockey-specific images, examples, and scenarios, and is delivered online in a concise, engaging format that accommodates the busy schedules and varying learning styles of participants.

YOUNG PLAYERS WILL LEARN HOW TO:

- Distinguish between appropriate and inappropriate conduct on the ice, on the bench, and in the dressing room
- Apply principles of inclusion and respect in their interactions with teammates, opponents, coaches, and officials
- Understand when and how to report behaviour that makes hockey unsafe or unwelcoming

ABOUT THE LEARNING EXPERIENCE

- Immediate access. Participants can begin training instantly and receive their Certificate of Completion upon passing the required test.
- Flexible pacing. Each learner moves through the material at their own speed, accommodating different learning styles and schedules.
- Universal access. The course works on any device with an internet connection: computer, tablet, or phone.
- Active learning. Content comes to life through interactive exercises, quizzes, and realistic hockey scenarios that reinforce key concepts.

TIMELINE FOR COMPLETION

This is a self-paced course. Most players will complete their training within 20-30 minutes.
